Theater stars welcome in TV

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Hollywood is hot for Kristin Chenoweth.

Um ... who?

Well, if you saw last season's otherwise unremarkable telecast of the Tony Awards, you must remember the Oklahoma-born Chenoweth for her hilariously cranky performance as Sally, the younger sister of the title character in "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." To absolutely no one's surprise, she took a Tony home with her that night.

And if you tune into ABC's "Annie," a Wonderful World of Disney production on Sunday, Nov. 7, from the same creative team that brought you the ratings smash "Cinderella" two years ago, you won't be able to take your eyes off Chenoweth as dim but brassy bimbo Lily St. Regis ("I'm named after the hotel," she explains breathily).

That production is stuffed stem to stern with veterans of the New York stage, including Tony winners Alan Cumming ("Cabaret") and Audra McDonald ("Ragtime"), as well as Kathy Bates and Victor Garber, both familiar TV and movie faces who first paid their dues onstage.

For many of these performers — most of whom, like Chenoweth, profess that their hearts still belong to the stage — the decision to look westward is a simple matter of economics. That certainly helped Tony and Emmy winner Christine Baranski make up her mind to do "Cybill."

"The turf in New York is getting very difficult," Baranski says. "In 1994, I was doing a perfectly splendid play, and my take-home pay was, I guess, $400 a week. That's not even enough to pay your monthly bills, let alone put money aside for college."

For others, there is the bittersweet but simple realization that the number of people who see their work onstage is painfully small, compared to audiences for movies and TV.

"Sometimes I feel as if I have no history," Emmy-winning "Frasier" star David Hyde Pierce, who starred in several plays before coming to Hollywood, says with a sigh. "I did all this work onstage back East, and yet everyone knows me only from "Frasier," or maybe "The Powers That Be.""

"The beautiful thing about theater is that it's ephemeral," agrees "Ally McBeal" cast member Greg Germann, "and the awful thing about theater is that it's ephemeral."

And Broadway stars are finding a warm welcome these days in Hollywood, thanks in part to the TV minirevival in musicals such as "Annie," "Cinderella" and "Gypsy," projects that require the kind of discipline and training that almost demands a theater background.

McCormack is just playing the part

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Is Eric McCormack of "Will & Grace" really gay? What other shows has he done? -Crystal Martin, Ephrata, Pa.

Toronto-born McCormack, 36, has been married to Janet Holden since 1997 and says he is just "playing gay" on his sitcom. A classically trained actor, he racked up a number of stage credits before landing roles in several Canadian series and TV movies.

McCormack probably first caught the eye of U.S. viewers as Col. Francis Clay Mosby in the two syndicated "Lonesome Dove" series, although he had a recurring role on the ABC flop "Townies" and the NBC bomb "Jenny." He had much better luck in "Borrowed Hearts: A Holiday Romance," a 1997 TV movie in which he co-starred with Roma Downey.

He plays Mel Ferrer opposite Jennifer Love Hewitt's title character in ABC's upcoming "Audrey Hepburn" movie.

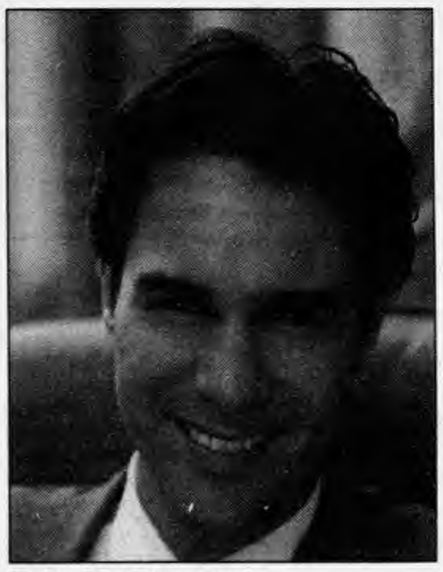
Pipeline

When did "The Cosby Mysteries" air on TV? And what was the name of the moose who walked through the town in the opening credits of "Northern Exposure"? -Mrs. Mary C. Love, Lock Haven, Pa.

"Cosby Mysteries," which starred Bill Cosby as New York criminologist Guy Hanks, aired on NBC from Sept. 21, 1994, to April 12, 1995. James Naughton and Rita Moreno co-starred.

Morty the moose in "Northern Exposure" was part of a captive moose herd maintained at a research station affiliated with Washington State University. He died during the run of the show, apparently of a copper and cobalt deficiency. His offspring include Melody and Matilda, born in 1993.

Who created the role of Alice Kramden on "The Honeymooners"? -M. Huberth, Port Charlotte, Fla.



Eric McCormack
WILL & GRACE

The character of Alice first appeared on "Cavalcade of Stars" with Pert Kelton in the role.

I heard that Tea Leoni and David Duchovny are expecting. Has the baby been born? -Roseanne Harrington, San Angelo, Texas.

A daughter, Madelaine West Duchovny, was born April 24.

Is Rebecca Romijn-Stamos related to John Stamos of "Full House"? -Alesha Stewart, Centerton, Ark.

They're married.

Where was Joe Lando ("Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman") born? -Donann Ausderau, El Paso, Texas.

Lando was born Dec. 9, 1961, in Chicago.

Can you provide the title of a TV movie set in a Pennsylvania coal mining area and starring Colleen Dewhurst, Jason Robards and Kathy Bates? -April, Punta Gorda, Fla.

That was "Johnny Bull" (1986), which also co-starred Peter MacNicol ("Ally McBeal").

Burns brings master's touch to story of Stanton and Anthony

Some TV events just call for a party. What would the Super Bowl be without a bunch of buddies and the requisite refreshments? The Academy Awards show almost requires catty friends and a buffet. Though documentaries don't usually prompt such bashes, "Not for Ourselves Alone: The Story of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony" should.

Women will want to invite their friends to watch its two-part premiere on PBS Sunday and Monday, Nov. 7 and 8. It's not for women only, but it certainly should be mandatory viewing for mothers and daughters.

It's not just that the latest documentary by Ken Burns and Paul Barnes is important, or that it's spectacularly made. It's that the women's revolution is both eloquently explained and put into a concise historical context.

The film traces the lives of Anthony, who is revealed as a rather dour single woman whose mission in life was to get the vote for women, and Stanton, who is portrayed as a gracious, married mother of seven who campaigned tirelessly for the vote and other necessary aspects of equality.

Through Burns' trademark use of magnificent photos and film footage, "Not for Ourselves Alone" reminds us that American women once had no constitutional right to attend college, work, vote or even own property. Tell a girl today — she of soccer meets and self-esteem classes — how it was a century ago, and her jaw will drop. Tell most adults and they, too, may be surprised. That's what enticed Burns.

"Ten years ago, my editor, Paul Barnes, was reading a biography of Stanton, and each day at lunch he regaled us with more and more stories until we vowed on the spot to make (the documentary)," Burns explains, confessing that "I was first humiliated that I knew nothing, and here I claim to be a filmmaker focusing on American history."

He says he vowed to redress his lack of knowledge with a piece on these pivotal women in part because "the largest social transformation in American history goes unmentioned in our textbooks and that clearly has to change."

Burns and Barnes dedicated the documentary to their daughters. After watching "Not for Ourselves Alone," Burns says, "They will learn from Stanton and Anthony the true meaning of courage."

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Annie
6 P.M. ON ABC

Oscar winner Kathy Bates ("Misery") resurrects her talent for witchy-woman roles to play cruel orphanage boss Miss Hannigan in this sparkling new remake of the Broadway musical. Alicia Morton (Broadway's "Les Miserables") stars as the optimistic orphan whose fortunes change when she's taken in for the holidays by rich Daddy Warbucks.

NFL Football
7:15 P.M. ON ESPN

It could be a battle of backup quarterbacks when the Miami Dolphins host the Tennessee Titans. Damon Huard replaced Dan Marino (injured throwing shoulder) in Week 5 and led the Dolphins to a come-from-behind win over the New England Patriots. For the Titans, Neil O'Donnell has led the charge since Steve McNair's back surgery in September, compiling four wins in his first five games as the starter. The key man on offense, though, is Eddie George.

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?
8 P.M. ON ABC

The goofy game show that became TV's sleeper hit of the summer makes a comeback for November sweeps. Players start small and try to build their winnings into the ultimate prize — a cool $1 million — by answering progressively harder questions. Legalized cheating is part of the fun; contestants have the opportunity to eliminate answer choices, seek audience input or call a friend for help. Regis Philbin hosts.

Gillian Anderson and David Duchovny
THE X-FILES

Movie: Shake, Rattle & Roll
8 P.M. ON CBS

Two aspiring musicians in love travel the rocky road to fame in this take on "A Star Is Born" set in the early days of rock 'n' roll. B.B. King has a cameo role that doesn't require much of a stretch, playing what he is in real life: a legendary bluesman.

The X-Files
8 P.M. ON FOX

The wait is over for Mulder and Scully's (David Duchovny, Gillian Anderson) fans, as the surreal series returns with a two-part resolution to last season's cliffhanger ending. The clock is ticking for Scully as she searches for the secret to the alien relic that's left Mulder at death's door in "The Sixth Extinction." The conclusion airs next Sunday.

Movie: The Magical Legend of the Leprechauns
8 P.M. ON NBC

A leprechaun becomes indebted for life to a visiting American who saves him from drowning. The relationship lands the visitor in the middle of a big war of little people, as the leprechauns take up arms against the fairies over a forbidden romance between the leprechaun leader's son and the fairy king's daughter. Randy Quaid stars in this fanciful tale from the king of big-budget small-screen extravaganzas, Robert Halmi Sr., who draws on his experience with "Gulliver's Travels" to shrink Colm Meaney, Kieran Culkin, Roger Daltrey and Zoe Wanamaker to wee-folk size.

Montel follows fashion in D.C.

Using their hosting skills to their best advantage, talk show hosts Montel Williams and Leeza Gibbons have been taking their acts on the road.

Williams recently served as master of ceremonies for an Oleg Cassini fashion show in Washington, D.C., to benefit the Humane Society.

The good cause reportedly drew quite a crowd of celebrities and politicians. Both Williams' wife and daughter were among the parade of models.

Gibbons made a quick trip to the Big Apple to host "Redbook" magazine's "Mothers and Shakers" awards. The honorees included a mother whose gay son was killed and another whose son was stabbed to death. Actress Jane Seymour also was honored for her various charity activities.

Not someone to waste an opportunity, Gibbons took advantage of her New York stay to interview actress Susan Sarandon for an upcoming E! Entertainment Network special.

Jenny Jones has a new way to get up close and personal with her fans. Being a Net-savvy modern talk show host, Jones recently signed on for an Internet chat on America Online.

Talk the Talk

It featured a live Webcam picture of Jones answering chat questions from all of her World Wide Web buddies. This was her third successful chat-room appearance, so a repeat performance is expected.

Former dean of talk Phil Donahue is nothing if not loyal. Last month, Eric Weinberger, former executive assistant to the executive producer of Donahue's show, invited former staffers to the production of his screenplay.

Guess who arrived to show their support? None other than the ex-boss himself, along with wife Marlo Thomas. The close-knit group then moved on to a former producer's home for a post-play celebration.

Martin Short may be a newcomer to talk, but his expertise in improvisational comedy is evident in almost every show.

Short has taken actor Tom Hanks back to his roots as a major league peanut vendor, donning a baseball cap and joining Hanks as he tossed peanuts to the audience.

Montel Williams

He has tried skateboarding and recently read Shakespeare with Deborah Norville, host of "Inside Edition."

Short also offered beauty tips to actress Janeane Garofalo and happily received talk show advice from fellow "Saturday Night Live" alumnus Chevy Chase.

One of Short's best moments came when he confronted comic Steve Martin about whether Martin had slept with Short's wife before the Shorts were married. (He never got a straight answer.)

TRIVIA

David Duchovny ("The X-Files") earned degrees from Princeton and Yale before abandoning his doctoral studies to pursue acting.

Alan Alda was born Alphonso D'Abruzzo. He almost turned down his role in "M*A*S*H," thinking it too lighthearted for a war series.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Sal Mineo" remembers the Italian immigrants' son who made a splash with young audiences in the '50s. Offered a choice of reform school or acting school after a robbery arrest at 10, he chose the latter and was soon working with the likes of James Dean and Charlton Heston, earning two Oscar nominations. His film and pop-music stardom fizzled in the '60s, although he kept working in TV movies and series guest roles until his murder at age 37.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Just Shoot Me
7 P.M. ON NBC

A male hand model (guest star Andy Dick, "NewsRadio") tries to get the upper hand with Adrienne (Rebecca Romijn-Stamos) by pushing Finch's (David Spade) jealousy buttons in "Finch Gets Dick." Nina (Wendie Malick) begins a community-service sentence at a home for seniors, who are driven to distraction by her singing. Laura San Giacomo also stars.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer
7 P.M. ON WB

Oz's (Seth Green) new love interest, Veruca (Paige Moss), is a real dog. Well, sort of. She's a werewolf, hence the attraction. Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) offers Willow (Alyson Hannigan) as much support as she can, but both girls fear that instinct has an edge over love in the battle for Oz's affections. Nicholas Brendon also stars in "Wild at Heart."

3rd Rock From the Sun
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

When the Solomons join Mary (Jane Curtin) for a murder mystery weekend, they have no clue that it's all an act. Dick (John Lithgow) can't understand why the man from Scotland Yard would rather read about casting calls than solve the crime, and Sally (Kristen Johnston) decides it's time to bring in Rutherford's finest. Poor Mary is laid up with food poisoning, but that doesn't stop Dick from trying to pin the crime on her. Billy Connolly guest stars in "Dial M for Dick."

Matthew Fox
PARTY OF FIVE

Party of Five
8 P.M. ON FOX

Charlie's (Matthew Fox) well-intentioned efforts to help a troubled student are misinterpreted by the girl's mother, who accuses him of behaving inappropriately toward her daughter. Daphne (Jennifer Aspen) goes back to her former line of work in "Too Close."

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Jonestown: Mystery of a Massacre" lifts the lid on information from some 50,000 documents recently retrieved via the Freedom of Information Act. That information, supported by interviews, photographs, diary entries and video footage, suggests the startling possibility that the "mass suicide" may have been mass murder, with most of the victims held down and injected with poison against their will.

Intimate Universe: The Human Body
8 P.M. ON TLC

We all have one, but most of us don't know a lot about how it works. This encore series of documentary specials can change that, with vibrant visuals and plenty of fascinating facts about our bodies. Did you know, for example, that we produce 2.5 billion red blood cells a day? The opener, "Life Story," is an overview of the life cycle. Next, "Building a Baby" traces the growth of a new life from conception to birth. Two more segments air Wednesday.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Two Guys and a Girl
7 P.M. ON ABC

Berg (Ryan Reynolds) realizes that the romantic sparks with Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) are at their hottest when the angry sparks are flying. So he introduces a secret weapon to keep things fired up: his mom. Sharon and Johnny (Traylor Howard, Nathan Fillion) get some help with their love life from an unexpected source: Pete (Richard Ruccolo). Cheryl Ladd guest stars in "Foul Play."

Get Real
8 P.M. ON FOX

The West Wing
8 P.M. ON NBC

The president and his staff have far more than place cards and protocol on their minds as they assemble for a state dinner honoring the Indonesian president. The FBI is in a standoff with survivalists, truckers across the country are threatening to strike and a fleet of aircraft carriers is in the path of a hurricane. And guess who's coming to dinner! None other than Laurie, Sam's call-girl pal.

Faith Ford
THE NORM SHOW

Roswell
8 P.M. ON WB

In "285 South," Michael (Brendan Fehr) "borrows" Maria's (Majandra Delfino) car — with her in it — to find the mysterious building whose location came to him in a vision. Maria and Michael also find themselves working together on a class project that partners up Max and Kyle and Liz and Isabel, providing an opportunity for some secrets to be spilled.

The Norm Show
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Norm (Norm Macdonald) plunges back into the betting pool headfirst after Shelly (Faith Ford) dumps him, spending all his time with a group of fellow gambling addicts (guest stars Drew Carey, Ryan Stiles and Diedrich Bader, "The Drew Carey Show") and violating his probation.

Law & Order
9 P.M. ON NBC

McCoy (Sam Waterston) is reunited with ex-colleague Jamie Ross (Carey Lowell), but it's not exactly a happy meeting. She's on the defense side now, and her client, an accused murderer, is an unsavory fellow who may have killed before. An innocent life hangs in the balance; a man who's been wrongly convicted faces execution for the crime her client committed if she gets him off. Jerry Orbach also stars in "Justice."

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Jimmy Doolittle: King of the Sky" remembers a man best known as an airborne war hero, but who saved at least as many lives with his scientific mind as with his combat prowess. He combined his doctorate in aeronautical engineering with his flying skills to develop safer aircraft and the technique of blind flying that fueled the growth of commercial aviation. And his strategy of setting fighter planes free from formation won the air war against Hitler.

David Hyde Pierce
FRASIER

Frasier
8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier and Niles' (Kelsey Grammer, David Hyde Pierce) snobbishness gets a boost from an unlikely source: a cheesy clock of Martin's (John Mahoney) that turns out to be a valuable heirloom of the Russian royal family. That news, and the revelation that an ancestor came from Russia, has them scrambling for evidence that they have royal blood in their veins.

Mystery!
9 P.M. ON PBS

The series' longtime host, Diana Rigg, proves she hasn't lost her appeal as an actress with "The Mrs. Bradley Mysteries," set in the 1920s. She plays a droll, dashing divorcee who uses her money and freedom to indulge her love of sleuthing. In "Speedy Death," Mrs. Bradley and her faithful driver and sidekick, George Moody (Neil Dudgeon), investigate the murder of her goddaughter's fiance at the country estate of an old flame.

ER

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Seven
7 P.M. ON FOX

A "Lethal Weapon"-esque pairing of a ready-to-retire detective and an energetic young rookie cop (Morgan Freeman, Brad Pitt) investigates a bizarre series of deaths in this 1995 thriller. The murder spree is a one-man crusade against the Seven Deadly Sins; the killer punishes gluttony, for example, by forcing a man to eat himself to death. Apparently, someone forgot to tell him murder is a sin, too.

Providence
7 P.M. ON NBC

Sydney's (Melina Kanakaredes) relationship with the ailing Kyle (Tom Verica) gets more complicated in "The Phantom Menace." As she examines one of his prospects, a young baseball player on his way to becoming either a star or a lush, she wonders whether the intentions of Kyle's therapist are completely honorable. Joanie and Robbie (Paula Cale, Seth Peterson) start a cable-access TV show with Jim (Mike Farrell) as the star, but as a TV host, he makes a great veterinarian.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Nicolas Cage: Wild at Heart" profiles an actor with show business in his blood. The son of a dancer, grandson of a composer and nephew of director Francis Ford Coppola, he discovered his love of acting early. He also loves a challenge and throws himself into his roles, a trait that helped win him an Oscar for "Leaving Las Vegas." Jim Carrey, Holly Hunter, friends and relatives help paint his portrait.

Brad Pitt
SEVEN

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch
8 P.M. ON ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) thinks Josh (David Lascher) will like her better if she's a little older, so she applies a magic lotion to add a few years. But a little of the goo goes a long way, turning the high-school senior into a senior citizen. Salem (voice of Nick Bakay) develops a major crush on Paula Abdul (guest starring as herself).

The Hughleys
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

In the conclusion of "Roots," Darryl (D.L. Hughley) is still reeling from the news that Henry isn't his birth father. Yvonne's (Elise Neal) Internet search turns up the genuine article (guest star Billy Dee Williams), who walked out on the family way back when. Marla Gibbs, who as Florence in "The Jeffersons" was known for drooling over Williams, also guest stars.

For Your Love
8:30 P.M. ON WB

Reggie (Edafe Blackmon) thinks he's doing Bobbi (Tamala Jones) a favor by trying to help her reconcile with her estranged mother. But he's the one who could wind up estranged from her, as she's in no rush to mend fences with Mom. Pam Grier ("Jackie Brown") guest stars in "The Sins of the Mother ... and the Boyfriend."

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

College Football
11 A.M. ON ABC

Penn State quarterback Rashard Casey and his teammates look to avenge a thrashing last season at the hands of Michigan when these two Big Ten rivals meet in Happy Valley. The Nittany Lions, ranked No. 2 in most polls behind Florida State for much of the season, have already qualified for a bowl game, but loftier goals such as a national championship remain. Their defense has been solid, thanks in large part to defensive end Courtney Brown, who recorded 7.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and 15 tackles for a loss through seven games. The Wolverines ground attack has been grounded this season, ranking 95th in the nation with a 108-yard average.

Love Chronicles
6 P.M. ON A&E

We've romanticized the American frontier era, but was there much actual romance going on? "Love in the Old West" talks with descendants of those who were there — both settlers and American Indians — for the real scoop on just how wild the Wild West was in the love department. Actor John Corbett hosts the hour.

Early Edition
7 P.M. ON CBS

"Fatal Edition" continues a story line that began last week. Gary (Kyle Chandler) is on the run after being fingered as a suspect in the murder of newspaperman Frank Scanlon. He didn't do it; in fact, he was trying to save Frank, but the paper printed the wrong time of death, and Gary was too late. But even Toni Brigatti (Constance Marie) is convinced he's guilty. Luis Antonio Ramos also stars.

Movie: Come on Get Happy: The Partridge Family Story
8 P.M. ON ABC

Eve Gordon ("Honey, We Shrunk Ourselves") heads up the cast of this new drama about the real lives of a fake music group. The stars' psychedelic bus ride to stardom is played out amid family problems, fan hysteria and the vagaries of showbiz. Rodney Scott, Kathy Wagner, Shawn Pyfrom, JB Gaynor, Scotty Leavenworth and Tara Blanchard play the young actors whose lives were changed forever by their roles as members of the singing family. Danny Bonaduce, who played precocious middle son Danny in the hit '70s sitcom, served as consultant on the TV movie, whose soundtrack is peppered with Partridge tunes.

Movie: I Love Trouble
8 P.M. ON USA

This 1994 thriller has plenty of action, but at heart it's a romantic comedy in the tradition of "His Girl Friday." Julia Roberts and Nick Nolte star as rival Chicago reporters forced to cooperate when their competing investigations of a train wreck uncover a deadly conspiracy. Further complicating the situation is their growing attraction to each other. Saul Rubinek also stars.
